ARTICLE I. IN GENERAL

Sec. 9-4-1. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Animal control officer means the person designated by the city to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Impoundment or impound means the taking into custody of an animal by a fully authorized employee of the office of animal control or any other duly authorized employee or agent of the city, and the placing of such animal in an impoundment facility.

Impoundment facility means that physical area, structure or facility, designated by the city and city council, wherein animals are placed and maintained after impoundment under the provisions of this chapter.

Owner of an animal means any person having a right of property in an animal, who keeps or harbors the animal, or who has it within his care, who acts as a animal's custodian, or who permits the animal to remain in or about any premises occupied by him.

Sec. 9-4-2. Enforcement by animal control officer; limitation of authority.

Enforcement of the provisions of this chapter by the animal control officer shall be within the incorporated areas of the city.

Sec. 9-4-3. Penalty for violation.

Any person violating the terms and provisions of this chapter, or any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, shall, upon conviction, be subject to punishment in the municipal court, as provided in section 1-1-5.

Sec. 9-4-4. Injury or destroying; use of poison.

Whoever willfully and maliciously kills, wounds, maims, disfigures or poisons any domestic animal or exposes any poisonous substances with the intent that the life of any animal should be destroyed thereby, such animal being the property of another, shall, upon conviction, be punished as provided by section 1-1-5.

Sec. 9-4-5. Cruelty.

It shall be unlawful for any person to overdrive, overload, override, torture, torment, unjustifiably injure, deprive of necessary sustenance, food or drink; or cruelly beat, or needlessly mutilate, or kill any living creature; or cause or procure any of the acts or omissions described in this section.

- State law references-Cruelty to animals, O.C.G.A. § 16-12-4.

Sec. 9-4-6. Keeping of swine.

It shall be unlawful for any person to keep enclosed in any pen, or otherwise, any swine of any description within the city.

Sec. 9-4-7. Running at large--Animals generally.

It shall be unlawful for any person in charge or control of any horse, mule, jack, cow, bull, yearling, goat, sheep or hog, or cattle or any kind of stock, to allow the same to run at large in and upon the streets, alleys or commons of the city.

State law reference-Livestock running at large or straying, O.C.G.A. § 4-3-1 et seq.

Sec. 9-4-8. Same-Domestic fowl.

All chickens, geese, ducks, turkeys and other domestic fowl shall be kept by the owners thereof on their own premises, and it shall be unlawful for the owners of such fowl to allow or permit them to run or be at large in the streets, or to allow them to go upon and trespass on the yards, lawns or premises of other people.

Sec. 9-4-9. Same-Impounding required.

It shall be the duty of the animal control officer and of such other persons designated by the mayor and councilmembers to take up and confine any of the animals or fowl mentioned in this article as shall be found at large within the city.

Sec. 9-4-10. Vicious animals; keeping.

It shall be unlawful for any owner or other person to maintain or harbor within the limits of the city a manifestly vicious animal unless such vicious animal is securely, but humanely, confined or restrained in such manner as to prevent such animal from attacking or biting a person or another animal. It shall be prima facie evidence of viciousness if an animal, without provocation, fiercely attacks or bites persons or animals not on the owner's premises.

- State law reference-Liability of owner or keeper of vicious or dangerous animal for injuries caused by animal, O.C.G.A. § 51-2-7.

Sec. 9-4-11. Dead animals; removal required.

It shall be unlawful for any person to allow any dead animal to remain on his premises for more than six hours after its death, or to throw the dead animal upon any of the streets, lanes, alleys or vacant lots within the city. The owner or person in possession of such animal, or the owner or occupant of the premises upon which such animal may have died, shall, immediately after its death, notify the city to make proper disposal of the dead animal.

ARTICLE II. OFFICE OF ANIMAL CONTROL

Sec. 9-5-1. Creation; administration and enforcement by animal control officer.

The office of animal control of the city is hereby created. This office shall operate under the general supervision of the animal control officer, subject to the oversight and control of the mayor. The animal control officer shall be charged with the primary responsibility of enforcing this chapter.

Sec. 9-5-2. Duties of animal control officer.

The animal control officer shall receive and investigate all complaints regarding animals. Such complaints shall be made in writing and in person, and they shall state facts and circumstances regarding the incidents in question from the firsthand knowledge of the complaining party.

Sec. 9-5-3. Impoundment.

(a) Notice to owner After the impoundment of any animal under the provisions of this chapter, the animal control officer shall give notice thereof to the owner of such animal by letter directed to such owner at the address indicated on the vaccination records or other city and county records. If no such address is available, then notice shall be sent to such address that the animal control officer can determine, after reasonable inquiry, as would be reasonably expected to reach the owner,

(b) Contents of notice. The notice provided for in subsection (a) of this section shall be sent by certified mail, with return receipt requested, and it shall contain the following:

(1) Description of animal. A general description of the animal impounded, the kind of animal, the breed of the animal, if readily ascertainable, the color and sex of the animal, together with any other information which may be furnished by any identification tag found on or affixed to the animal.

(2) Required fees. The owner of the animal may redeem such animal within five days from the giving of the notice, upon the payment of a reasonable impoundment fee and such other fees as are necessary to bring the owner and his animal into compliance with the laws and the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 9-5-4. Redemption.

At any time within five days from the date of the giving of the notice required in section 9-5-3(b), the owner of an animal may claim the animal, and such animal may be redeemed by the owner, upon the following conditions:

(1) The submission of proof of ownership.

- (2) The payment to the city, at city hall, for the use and benefit of the city, of such impoundment fee as is prescribed by the city.
- (3) The payment to the city for the use and benefit of the city of the costs of feeding the animal during the period of confinement, as prescribed by the city council.

Sec. 9-5-5. Disposition.

(a) Hearing. The animal control officer or his employees or agents may dispose of any animals not claimed or redeemed by the owner, as provided in this article, on the first day following the required impoundment period as provided in section 9-5-3, unless the owner of the animal has requested a hearing under this article, in which event the animal shall not be disposed of until a decision has been rendered by the mayor pursuant to this chapter. Disposition after the hearing shall be made in accordance with the decision of the mayor, unless superseded by appeal or otherwise.

(b) Methods. The following methods of disposal may be used by the animal control officer, or any of his agents, or any duly authorized officer or agent of the city:

- (1) The animal may be placed in an adoptive home;
- (2) The animal may be sold;
- (3) The animal may be destroyed in such a humane method as the animal control officer may deem appropriate; or
- (4) The animal may be donated or given to any legally constituted medical research facility.

(c) Bill of sale. In the case of the sale or adoption of any such animal, the city at the city hall offices shall execute a bill of sale to any such person so requesting a bill of sale, which shall be sufficient to vest title to the animal in such purchaser. This receipt shall then be taken to the animal control officer for him to release the animal.

Sec. 9-5-6. Hearing.

(a) Request by owner. All animal owners who are aggrieved by the actions of the animal control officer or his duly authorized agents, or any duly authorized employee or agent of the city, taken pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, may request a hearing concerning the actions before the mayor.

(b) Notice by owner. Any person so aggrieved shall notify the mayor five days after his receipt of any notice required to be given by this article. The notice shall be in writing, signed by the aggrieved party, and shall state his correct mailing address and telephone number, if any.

(c) Designation of time and place. Upon receipt of such notice, the mayor shall designate a time and place for such hearing within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days from the receipt of the request.

(d) Conduct of hearing. On the scheduled date for the hearing, the mayor shall hear all facts and testimony relevant to the matter, liberally applying rules of evidence so as not to be overly restricted by the technical application of same, and shall render a decision upon the merits of the matter.

CONCORD CODE

ARTICLE III. DOGS*

Sec. 9-6-1. Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Dog means a dog of either sex, unless otherwise specified.

Inoculated means having received the administration of an antirabic vaccine, which vaccine has been approved by the state and administered by a licensed veterinarian or other person authorized by the city council.

Sec. 9-6-2, Female dogs in heat.

No person owning or having custody of any female dog shall permit such female dog off the premises of the owner or person having control of such dog when such dog shall be in heat, unless the female dog is under control and attached to a leash.

- State law reference-Permitting dogs in heat to roam or run free, O.C.G.A. § 4-8-6.

Sec. 9-6-3. Rabies inoculation required.

Any person who shall own, keep, or have control of a dog within the city is required to have such dog inoculated in an approved manner by a licensed veterinarian for the control of rabies. Such person shall be required to have within his possession at all times a certificate supplied by the veterinarian stating the date of the last inoculation and the expiration date of the vaccine.

- State law reference-Control of rabies, O.C.G.A. § 31-19-1 et seq.

Sec. 9-6-4. Confinement, disposal of uninoculated dog upon biting person; liability of owner for violation and penalties.

Any uninoculated dog which bites any person may be confined for a period of not over ten days at the expense of the owner for observation, or may be disposed of as directed by the city council for examination and report by the state health department. The owner or person in control of such dog shall be tried before the municipal court for permitting the dog to run at large in the corporate limits uninoculated and shall, upon conviction, be subject to the penalties provided by section 1-1-5.

• State law references-Dangerous Dog Control Law, O.C.G.A. § 4-8-20 et seq.; dogfighting, O.C.G.A. § 16-12-37.

Sec. 9-6-5. License and tag required; Procedure for obtaining.

During the month of September each year, or upon a dog attaining four months of age, in that event, each person owning, keeping or controlling a dog shall apply for a license and tag for each dog owned, kept or controlled. The fee for this license shall be $3.00 per dog. Evidence that the dog applied for has been inoculated shall be presented as required by the city clerk. Upon satisfactory proof, a license and tag shall be issued, and the tag securely attached to the body of the dog. The license and tag shall contain the expiration date of the license and tag.

Sec. 9-6-6. Attachment of tag not issued to dog; removal of tag without owner's consent.

No person shall attach a license tag to any dog to which it was not issued or remove a license tag from the collar of any dog without the consent of its owner.

Sec. 9-6-7. Impoundment of certain dogs; redemption.

All dogs found without the tag described in section 9-6-5 shall be impounded and kept for a period of five days, after which, if not claimed by the owner or keeper, such dogs shall be put to death humanely. Owners or keepers of dogs seeking to claim dogs from the pound shall be required to pay all charges for the care and keeping of the dog during confinement and shall further comply with section 10-39. The city shall select the location of the dog pound in which dogs shall be impounded for failure to comply with this article. The sum of $5.00 per day, per dog, will be charged, each day a dog is impounded, payable as the city directs.

Sec. 9-6-8. Violations; duty to report and give testimony in court; duty of enforcement officer receiving complaint.

Any person who has personal knowledge of the violation of all or any portion of the provisions of this article shall notify the police department and shall also make known his willingness to appear and give testimony concerning any such violation in the municipal court of the city upon being summoned thereto at the time and place specified in such summons. It shall be the duty of any person designated by the governing authority to seize and confine such dogs as provided in this article, provided that the person may act to seize and confine dogs not complying with this article based on personal knowledge.

Sec. 9-6-9. Hindering of enforcement.

No person shall hinder, molest, or interfere with any person authorized or empowered to perform any duty under this article.

Sec. 9-6-10. Nuisance dogs generally.

No person shall allow a dog over which he has custody or control to remain on his property or premises if the dog shall constitute a nuisance as the term is defined by the laws of this state.

CITY OF CONCORD
ANIMAL CONTROL ORDINANCE

Sec. 9-7-1. Definitions.

(a) DOG - A Canine of either sex.

(b) DOG UNDER CONTROL - A dog is under control if he is controlled by a leash, is at heel, or is beside a competent person and obedient to that person's commands, or is within a vehicle being driven or parked on the streets and either supervised or confined, or is confined within the property limits of its owner or custodian.

(c) DOGS RUNNING AT LARGE - Any dog is considered running at large and not under immediate control if it is not on a leash, not at heel, not beside a competent person and obedient to that person's commands, or when it is not in a vehicle driven or parked and either supervised or confined, or not confined within the property limits of its owner or custodian.

(d) ABANDONED ANIMALS - Any domesticated animal shall be considered abandoned, for the purpose of this chapter, which shall have been placed upon public property or within a public building unattended or uncared for, or upon or within the private property of another without the express permission of the owner, custodian or tenant of the private property, and is unattended or uncared for.

Sec. 9-7-2. Leash law.

It shall be unlawful for any owner or possessor of any dog to allow such dog to run at large, whether wearing a collar and tag or not, within the incorporated areas of the city. Any and all such dogs found running at large, shall be immediately impounded by an officer of the Animal Control unit or any police officer. The officers may pursue the dog onto private property to effect capture of such dog.

Sec. 9-7-3. Duty of all animal owners to be responsible owners.

It shall be the duty of every owner or custodian of any animal to exercise reasonable care and take all necessary steps and precautions to protect other people, property, other animals and the animals under their supervision from injuries, illness or damages which might result from the animal's behavior. In the event that the owner or custodian of any animal is a minor, the parent or guardian of such minor shall be responsible to ensure that all provisions of this ordinance are complied with.

Sec. 9-7-4. Duty to keep dogs under restraint while on owner's property.

It shall be the duty of every owner or custodian of any dog to ensure that the dog is kept under restraint and that reasonable care and precautions are taken to prevent the dog from leaving the real property limits of its owner, possessor, or custodian, and ensure that:

- (a) It is securely and humanely enclosed within a house, building, fence, pen, or other enclosure out of which it cannot climb, dig, jump, or otherwise escape on its own volition.
- (b) It is securely and humanely restrained by chain, cable or trolley, or other tether of sufficient strength to prevent escape, or
- (c) It is on a leash and under the control of a competent person or it is on a leash and obedient to that person's command and that person is present with the animal any time it is not restrained as provided for in (a) or (b) above while on the owner's property.
- (d) Animals determined to be vicious shall comply with the requirements of the "dangerous animal" ordinance of the City of Concord and the State of Georgia.

Sec. 9-7-5. Duty to keep dog under restraint while off property.

It shall be the duty of the owner or custodian of any dog to keep the dog under restraint and control at all times while the dog is off the real property limits of the owner, possessor or custodian.

For the purpose of this Section, a dog is deemed under control when:

- A. It is securely and humanely confined within a vehicle, parked or in motion, or
- B. It is properly confined within a secure enclosure with the permission of the owner or the property where the enclosure is located, or
- C. It is securely restrained by a leash or other device held by a competent person, or
- D. It is under voice command of a competent person who is in the immediate proximity of the dog.
- E. Owners shall be responsible for litter clean up.

Sec. 9-7-6. Public nuisance animal.

A public nuisance animal shall mean and include any animal or animals that:

- a - is repeatedly found at large,

- b - damages the property of anyone other than the owner,
- c - is vicious,
- d - attacks without provocation,
- e - excessively makes disturbing noises including, but not limited to, continued and repeated howling, barking, whining, or other utterances to such a degree as to cause loss of sleep, discomfort, anxiety or fear of any citizen who commonly dwells within audible distance of the kennel or common place of abode of such canine.
- f - creates unsanitary conditions of offensive and objectionable odors in enclosures or surroundings and thereby creates unreasonable annoyance or discomfort to neighbors or others in close proximity to the premises where the animal is kept.

In the event any two (2) citizens, not from the same household, of the city shall sign an affidavit, in writing, that an animal who resides or is commonly kept or housed within audible distance of their residence(s) or place(s) of business, barks or howls or makes noise or series of noises in succession for a period although not necessarily constant or continuous, of twenty (20) minutes on more than one occasion, and such noise, barking or howling has caused them to become anxious, nervous or afraid, or has caused loss of sleep, such canine may be deemed to be a nuisance or otherwise is deemed a nuisance animal in accordance with the aforementioned description of Public Nuisance Animal. The owner or possessor of such animal shall be cited into the municipal court to answer the charge made by said affidavit or citation to show just cause why such animal should not be banned from the limits of the city, and upon conviction thereon, shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) per day for each and every day such animal shall remain within the city limits, together with the cost of court and any other necessary and incidental to the prosecution of such action.

Any such animal may be impounded and the owner or possessor charged for a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 9-7-7. Limit on number of dogs allowed.

The keeping of dogs shall be allowed as an accessory use on any lot, provided such dogs are for personal use and enjoyment and not for commercial purposes. Exceptions to this may include specially trained law enforcement dogs under the supervision of trained managers.

The number of dogs permitted shall be in accordance with the following schedule, except in determining the number of dogs allowed only those dogs six (6) months or older in age shall be counted.

1 -2	No requirement
3	10,000 feet of lot size
4	20,000 feet of lot size
5 or more	30,000 feet, plus 10,000 square feet for each dog over 5

Sec. 9-7-8. Grandfather clause.

Any person, at the time of the enactment of this ordinance that has more dogs or cats than permissible by this ordinance shall be allowed to maintain their pets and shall come into compliance by attrition.

CATS

Sec. 9-7-9. Responsibility to comply.

Any person who harbors a cat shall be responsible for ensuring that the cat is in compliance with the provisions of this article.

Sec. 9-7-10. Unlawful presence.

It shall be unlawful for a cat to be upon the property of any person if the person owning or in the lawful possession of said property objects to the presence of the cat.

Sec. 9-7-11. Vaccination and tags required.

- (a) A cat shall not be required to wear a collar. However, such cat shall have a valid vaccination tag showing the name and address of the person harboring the cat and which the person harboring the cat shall retain and display to authorized personnel when requested to do so.
- (b) No person shall attach a vaccination tag or an identification tag to any cat for which it was not issued or intended, nor shall any person remove a vaccination tag or an identification tag from any cat for which it was issued or intended.
- (c) Any cat being shipped or transported through the city, or any cat entering the city only for the purpose of a temporary stay, when such stay does not exceed fifteen (15) days, shall be exempt from the vaccination and tagging provisions of this article.

Sec. 9-7-12. Running at large while in heat.

Every female cat in heat shall be confined in a building or other enclosure in such manner that such female cat cannot come into contact with a male cat except for planned breeding.

Sec. 9-7-13. Limit on number of cats harbored.

- (a) The harboring of cats for commercial purposes, including but not limited to the breeding and sale of cats, shall not be allowed except as may be provided under licensing provisions in the ordinances of the city.
- (b) The number of cats six (6) months of age or older shall be limited on any lot according to the following provisions:

Number of Cats
Up to 4
1 additional

Minimum Lot Size
1 acre or less
Each additional ¼ acre

This limitation shall not apply to veterinary clinics, licensed animal shelters, pet shops or grooming establishments.

Sec. 9-7-14. Enforcement.

(a) In the event that a determination can be made of the identity of a person harboring an animal in violation of this article, any authorized personnel shall be authorized to issue a citation to said person returnable to the city recorder's court.

(b) In the event that a determination can not be made of the identity of a person harboring an animal in violation of this article, any authorized personnel may impound said animal.

(c) Whether or not a determination can be made of the identity of a person harboring an animal in violation of this article, authorized personnel may impound said animal if the animal by its behavior, actions or appearance becomes a threat to the public health or welfare.

Sec. 9-7-15. Penalties.

Any person who violates the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, in addition to any penalties imposed by state law, may be subject to a fine of up to $50.00 or imprisonment for a period not to exceed five (5) days, or both. Each day's continuing violation and each animal in violation constitutes a separate offense.

CONCORD SEWER ORD

12/12/1995

ORDINANCE

To impose license fees on insurers conducting business within the City of Concord, Georgia; to impose a gross premiums tax on insurers operating within the State of Georgia; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting ordinances; and other purposes.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the City of Concord, Georgia; and it is hereby ordained by authority thereof:

Section 1. Insurers License Fees

There is hereby levied for the year 1996 and for each year thereafter an annual license fee upon each insurer doing business within the City of Concord, Georgia in the amount of fifteen dollars ($15.00). For each separate business location in excess of one not covered by Section 2, which is operating on behalf of such insurers within the City of Concord, Georgia, there is hereby levied a license fee in the amount of fifteen dollars ($15.00). For the purposes of this ordinance, the term "insurer" means a company which is authorized to transact business in any of the classes of insurance designated in O.C.G.A. Sec. 33-3-5.

Section 2. License Fees for Insurers Insuring Certain Risks at Additional Business Locations

For each separate business location, not otherwise subject to a license fee hereunder, operated and maintained by a business organization which is engaged in the business of lending money or transacting sales involving term financing and in connection with such loans or sales offers, solicits or takes application for insurance through a licensed agent of an insurer for insurance said insurer shall pay an additional license fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per location for the year 1996 and for each year thereafter.

Section 3. Gross Premiums Tax Imposed on Life Insurers

There is hereby levied for the year 1996 and for each year thereafter an annual tax based solely upon gross direct premiums upon each insurer writing life, accident and sickness insurance within the State of Georgia in an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the gross direct premiums received during the preceding calendar year in accordance with O.C.G.A. Sec.33-8-8.1. Gross direct premiums as used in this section shall mean gross direct premiums as used in O.C.G.A. Sec.33-8-4. The premium tax levied by this section is in addition to the license fees imposed by Section 1 of this ordinance.

Section 4. Gross Premiums Tax, All Other Insurers

There is hereby levied for the year 1996 and for each year thereafter an annual tax based solely upon gross direct premiums upon each insurer, other than an insurer transacting business in the class of insurance designated in subsection 1 of O.C.G.A. Sec.33-3-5, doing business within the State of Georgia in an amount equal to two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the gross direct premiums received during the preceding calendar year in accordance with O.C.G.A. Sec.33-8-8.2. Gross direct premiums as used in this section shall mean gross direct premiums as used in O.C.G.A. Sec.33-8-4. The premium tax levied by this section is in addition to the license fees imposed by Section 1 of this ordinance.

Section 5. Due Date for License Fees

License fees imposed in Sections 1 and 2 of this ordinance shall be due and payable on the first day of 1996 and on the first date of each subsequent year.

Section 6. Administrative Provisions

The City Clerk is hereby directed to forward a duly certified copy of this ordinance to the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Georgia within 45 days of its enactment.

Section 7. Effective Date

This ordinance shall become effective January 1, 1996.

Section 8. Severability

In the event any portion of this ordinance shall be declared or adjudged invalid or unconstitutional, it is the intention of the City Council of the City of Concord, Georgia, that such adjudication shall in no manner affect the other sections, sentences, clauses or phrases of this ordinance which shall remain in full force and effect, as if the invalid or unconstitutional section, sentence, clause or phrase were not originally a part of the ordinance.
